the hundreds upon hundreds of Princetonians who over the Holiday Season opened their hearts to others less fortunate than themselves in contributing a record-breaking $4,200 to the Fifteenth Annual Town Topics Christmas Appeal. As we enter upon the New Year, in a world wrestling with fears and grave doubts, it is heart-warming to know that Princetonians in the space of 15 years have now given $40,400 to earring for Princeton's own at Christmas. For their understanding generosity; for thinking twice of our community's "Forgotten Few;" for refusing to permit bewildered youngsters to remain behind the curtains of despair and uncertainty where tomorrow is too often just another gray morning; these wonderful, thoughtful neighbors of ours are our nominees for Princeton's

THE FORWARD LOOK

To 1962. After last week's reminiscence, backward look into 1961, Princeton residents turned to the future this week and looked ahead to the prospects for 1962.

Both mayors—a new one in the Borough and an old hand in the Township—fore-saw a year of problems. Both spoke in their New Year addresses of the need for cooperating with each other. Both touched on, but did not apparently agree on, the recurring question of consolidating the two Princetons.

Mayor Henry S. Patterson told his Borough constituents that he did not believe consolidation would be accomplished in the immediate future, but Mayor R. Kenneth Fairman said that the Township would again ask the Borough to go forward with a consolidation study, explaining that the Township would reserve judgment on the feasibility of consolidation until all the facts were available.

Commenting on the possibility of a study by the Rutgers Institute of Urban Affairs, Mayor Fairman said he thought it was unlikely that the Institute could undertake such a study on its own budget, and that it would probably have to be underwritten by

FAIRMAN IS CHAIRMAN: Two familiar faces in Township Hall will be there again in 1962. Mayor R. Kenneth Fairman (right) has been elected chairman (that is, Mayor) of Township Committee for the sixth consecutive year. With him will be Gordon Griffin, Township Attorney, who has also been named Borough Attorney, the first man ever to hold both positions simultaneously. (Staff Photo)

Borough and Township or by an outside grant.

"Status Quo." Mayor Patterson stated again in his address his belief that Princeton should remain a residential and educational community, resistant to high population densities and undisciplined business growth.

As an outgrowth of this belief, he set as top priority the removal of the "threat of urban renewal procedures from the Princeton scene."

He also set a high priority on construction of a Jackson Street re-alignment. (The full text of Mayor Patterson's address is on page 16.)

Both mayors believe that a 206-A by-pass is transcendentally important to the community and that Borough and Township should assist one another in bringing pressure on the state to get the by-pass through.

In his address, Mayor Fairman listed the 206-A by-pass and the loop roads as first in importance to the Township in 1962. Mayor Fairman reminded Township residents that all their municipal problems inevitably concerned the Borough and that the Township had to know the depth of Borough interest in any problem before proceeding.

He welcomed Mayor Patterson's statement on closer cooperation, and said that there were actually no "Township" plans but only "Community" plans.

"How can we go forward unless the Borough takes our hand and goes with us?" he asked.

Mayor Fairman suggested that Borough and Township together spark a regional approach on 206-A and the loop, joining with neighboring towns and counties, to try for progress in 1962.

He said that the Township would shortly approach the Borough for joint action on recreation and Open Space, and Mayor Patterson suggested that the Borough study the need for a Board of Recreation Commissioners to facilitate such cooperation with the Township.

Both mayors mentioned plans now being studied for a

Sewers? Mayor Fairman expressed Committee's hope for a sewer master plan and said that, before the Township's agreement with the Joint Sewer Operating Committee is renewed, the municipality wants a clearer definition of responsibilities.

He said that a major sewer for The Great Road as far as Heather Lane would be started in 1962, and he suggested that engineers design a sewer for the Mt. Lucas-206-Hillside area during the year, even though it might not be built for two or three years.

He asked that property owners who would like to connect with a sewer present their petitions to Committee early in the year, "and not wait until August," so that priority ratings might be set up.

Mayor Fairman assured residents that the sidewalk plan would be continued, but said that the Township could not complete the plan in the expected three years because it could not afford to borrow on a three-year basis. He said it might take six or seven years to complete the plan.

Turning to housing matters, Mayor Fairman spoke of the inadequate space in Township Hall and Township garage, and asked that Committee consider the problem of office space for employees and covering for expensive Township road equipment.

(Mr. Patterson also commented on the inadequacies of Borough Hall.)

Shelters? Mayor Fairman suggested the need for a larger road staff to provide an emergency crew, and he reminded the Township that Committee has been asked by the Council of Community Services to re-examine fluoridation.

"There are a lot more important things for us to consider," he commented, "among them the Federal fallout shelter proposals, and I'm sorry we have to spend time on fluoridation."

In regard to shelters, he said he was "staggered" by the scope of the public shelter program, referring to the tremendous cost of such a program and the need it might impose for a quasi-military organization to maintain discipline.

"We'll set up our priorities early in the year," he concluded, "and knock them down, one by one, always remembering that all problems are of a continuing character."

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY
In Township Coffers. The Township ended 1961 with a $30,000 operating surplus, amounting to 3½ percent of the total budget, Mayor R. Kenneth Fairman told Committee Monday night. The operating surplus was $14,900 in 1960 and $8,300 in 1959.

He said that the surplus grew, in part, from a cautious $8800 budgeted in 1961 for snow removal and not needed, and from centralized purchases.

The other day, we were asked if we knew how fast a jack rabbit can run, and had to admit that we didn't. But we soon got this answer from an expert, who says that a jack rabbit can maintain a top speed of forty miles an hour for quite a while! Ordinary dogs simply cannot overtake a healthy jack rabbit in full flight; the only dog that can catch up with them is a Greyhound. So, if you're ever tempted to outrun a jack rabbit, you'd better first don your seven league boots. However, we understand that Mr. Jack Rabbit reserves his top speed for emergencies, which gives him something in common with modern automobiles. Their excess power is there only for your emergencies, and all of us would do well to emulate the jack rabbit by using that automobile power only to save our lives, never to endanger them. Of course, to follow a jack rabbit in a campaign for safe driving, first of all you need a thoroughly safe car, and then you urgently need conscientious safety maintenance. We can fill the bill for you on both scores, faithfully, and economically. Kammler Buick-Pontiac Co., Route 206 opposite the Princeton Airport, WA 1-2322.

Ten Years Ago In Princeton

TOWN TOPICS, Jan. 3, 1952: As he began his second two-year term, Mayor P. MacKay Sturges recommended that the Borough purchase a radar device which would enable police to record the speed of cars and trucks unseen by the driver. He also urged the creation of a by-pass for State Road 206 to divert truck traffic from residential streets, remarking, "Until that is done, the 24-hour parade of rolling freight cars will continue."

The need for consolidation of Princeton's two municipalities was stressed by Mayor Sturges, who commented that "what may have been satisfactory in 1813 (the year the Borough was incorporated) and for nearly 140 years later will not necessarily be satisfactory in the years to come" . . . creation of a new street running parallel to Nassau and connecting Rayard Lane with John Street was again urged by the mayor, as was a general reassessment of all Borough property.

Names in the news: A Hadge Road resident, George F. Kennan, was named by President Truman as ambassador to Russia. . . J. Taylor Woodward was appointed vice-president in charge of its trust department by the Princeton Bank and Trust Company, with the announcement made by President Harrison M. Thomas. . . Albert J. Salzman was re-elected chairman of Princeton Township Committee. . . George R. Griffing became president of Borough Council. . . Letland G. Birch began a year's term as Fire Chief.

Motorists were advised by Foster D. Jemison, motor vehicle agent for Princeton, that they should apply for 1952 plates by February 15. . . numbers assigned were scheduled to become permanent, and those wishing to retain their 1951 registration were invited to make such a request. . . March 31 was the expiration date for '51 plates.

The Community Chest reported that it had topped its goal for the first time in three years. . . gifts and pledges totalling $112,167 (the 1961 quota was $250,000) were announced by campaign manager Frederick J. Worthington.

The year 1951 went into the record books as warmer — by three degrees per day — than the average temperature for the past 80 years. . . snowfall was only a third of normal and there was virtually no ice on the lake for skating.

The year just beginning would include a 29th day of February, but TOWN TOPICS noted that even the addition of 24 hours to the calendar every fourth year still left it out of balance by 26 seconds for every 12 months that pass. . . the only solution is to add a day every 3,323 years, the only problem to ascertain just when that should be done.

A pre-war Greta Garbo film, "Ninotchka," a satire on the inefficiencies of the communist way of life, was being re-run at The Garden. . . The Playhouse offered James Cagney in "Come Fill the Cup," the story of an alcoholic. . . at McCarter, the second program in the annual Children's Entertainment Series was "Bastien and Bastienne," sung by the Columbus Boychoir.

The annual Lawrenceville Invitation Hockey Tournament was scheduled for Baker Rink, with eight Princeton residents ready to play — four from Exeter and four from Lawrenceville. . . Bruce and Bob Denney, twins, were co-captains at Exeter, which also included Bob Kales and Doug Levick on its team. . . on the Lawrenceville roster were Bill Dorman, Tom Dorf, Lee Mestres and Dick Whitney.

The annual East-West football game in San Francisco went to the East, 15-14, with three Princetonians contributing in major fashion to the outcome. . . Dave Hickok was a standout on defense as a linebacker, Dick Pivrotto contributed valuable yardage as a halfback and the East's first touchdown came on a 43-yard pass thrown by Dick Kazmaier to Michigan State's Al Dorow — now quarterback for the New York Titans.

The Princeton Adult School announced the program for its tenth year. . . among the 23 courses in the curriculums were "Dollars and Sense," Tristram B. Johnson, instructor; "Interior Decorating," Frances O. Jones, instructor; "Effective Speaking," Mrs. Olive F. McKee, instructor; and "The History of the Bible," Dr. Charles T. Fritsch, instructor.

ing and "shopping around" on the part of Township administrator Joseph Nini.

Mayor Fairman also said that the Township had $12 million in new ratables, but that increased demands for schools and government services would probably cancel them out.

He told the Township that the municipality spent $276,000 in 1961 for capital improvements, including $113,000 on roads, $51,000 on sidewalks and $69,000 on sewers.

The wettest month was July, 7.87 inches, and, inevitably, the most humid. The driest month was November — with 2.13 inches of rain. In fact, December (which produced 7.9 inches of snow for a fall well above the 4.4 inches normal for winter's opening month) was the first since September to produce above-average precipitation.

New Year's Eve was particularly quiet, police in both municipalities report. . . township bars were allowed to open at 10 p.m., but no borough bar took advantage of the right to operate from 12.01 until 4 a.m. on New Year's morning.

Two minor accidents occurred on the Princeton-Kinston Road: Mrs. Elsie E. Gillette, 52, 28 Clay Street, left the road in her car near Shadybrook and damaged her automobile and 24 feet of guard rail.

Charles Melvin, 46, of Route 27, stopped to permit a car ahead of him to turn into the Carnegie Lake parking area, was struck in the rear by another driven by Stanley Small, 25, of the Graduate College. . . Mr. Small was treated at Princeton Hospital for minor injuries.

Borough Police were ordered by Health Officer David Blake on Monday to shoot a dog suspected of being rabid. . . the animal's head was sent to a Trenton laboratory for examination. . . Township Patrolman Antonio Diaforli, 366

WORK BEHIND SCHEDULE

On New School. Construction on the new Community Gardens School is six to eight weeks behind schedule, but there is still a chance that the building will be completed by the September 1 deadline.

The Township School Board has held two long, highly-charged public meetings in the last two weeks with the Community Gardens' "clerk-of-the-works," William Golden, and as a result, has terminated Mr. Golden's contract with the Board.

According to Board spokesmen Mr. Golden was retained as an inspector and "expediter," first, to inspect the school as construction progressed, and second, to prod into action any individual or firm whose work was not on time.

According to Mr. Golden, he was retained as an inspector only and should not have been asked to perform the expediting duties.

The agreement between the Board and Mr. Golden was never spelled out in writing, but Board members have said that their instructions were repeated to Mr. Golden many times.

In previous school construction programs the school superintendent has had to serve as "expediter." Dr. William Furell, the former superintendent, spent many hours at this kind of work during the construction of Johnson Park and Riverside Schools. Board members say that they were trying to avoid this situation by retaining Mr. Golden to "expedite."

In the course of the two hearings, Mr. Golden said that one reason for construction delay was that certain architect's drawings were not submitted on time. Board members retorted that one reason they had retained an "expediter" was to jog people whose work might be behind.

Although the Board ended its contract with Mr. Golden, its members assured him of their complete confidence in his integrity and explained to him that their action was due solely to the misunderstandings that had arisen and the consequent personality frictions.

The Board now plans to hire two persons for the job of "project inspector." One will do on-the-site inspections and the other will expedite.

The Board has also announced the appointment of Norman J. Anderson to replace Edward R. Martin, who resigned last week. Mr. Anderson, who served for many years as Secretary-Business Manager for the Board, has agreed to serve in that capacity on a part-time basis.

CONTESTS DEVELOP

In School Elections. Contests are scheduled for both the Borough and Township School Board elections this year. They will be held Tuesday, February 13.

Deadline for candidates to file is this Thursday, January 4. Those who had already filed at press-time included four candidates for three seats on the Borough Board of Education: Dr. Henry Abrams, 44 Armour Road; Mrs. Grace Loetscher, 74 Mercer Street, and Bryan V. Moore, 30 Quarry Street, all incumbents; and Robert R. Palmer, 200 Prospect Avenue.

Those who have filed to date for the two seats on the Township Board of Education are L. M. Hymerling, 297 Jefferson Road, and Richard Pearson, 39 Tyson Lane, both incumbents, and Willis A. Bussard, 151 Hickory Court.

FIVE STORIES DENIED

But Three Permitted. Sands & Associates, Inc. has been denied permission to erect a five-story office building at 194 Nassau.

However, the firm has received permission from the Borough Zoning Board to erect a three-story office building on the site in accordance with the plans filed in September, minus the top two floors.

With its permission to build the three-story building, the Zoning Board also granted a waiver of 36 parking spaces, thereby allowing Sands and Associates to provide only 21 parking spaces. These are to be provided behind the new building.

In denying the five-story application, the Zoning Board reminded the real estate firm that the zoning ordinance required 83 parking spaces — 62 short of the number that the Sands lot could hold.

Parking "Overtaxed." The Board said that the allocation of these 62 parking spaces to the proposed Borough "Nassau East" parking yard would overtax the yard and the meters on the street.

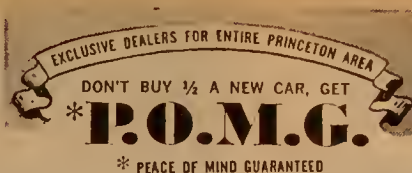

According to the zoning ordinance, no more than half the capacity of the public parking yard could be allocated, and as Borough plans call for about 150 metered spaces for general use, this would leave only 75 spaces available for allocation.

If the Sands Building occupied 62 of these, there would be only 13 for other property owners in the vicinity, and the Zoning Board found that this would impose "undue hardship" on other property owners in the area.

The three-story building will contain space for stores on its ground floor and office space on the second and third floors, and the Zoning Board expressed its opinion that this is "the highest and best use for this property."

"It should be noted," the Board's statement added, "that one of the purposes of zoning is to encourage the most appropriate use of land throughout the municipality."

In further comment on the parking situation, the Board said it would not be feasible to construct on the property a three-story building small enough to provide the required number of parking spaces at the site, and that the 36-car waiver was not excessive and would allow other property owners in the area to receive equal treatment without damage to the public good.

The Board's decisions were unanimous, but John Hurley abstained because of the business relations he maintains with Sands & Associates.

W. H. WALKER NAMED Borough Council President. The election of William H. Walker 2d as president of Borough Council for 1962 was a feature of Monday's reorganization meeting in Borough Hall. In this capacity, he will serve as acting mayor of Princeton whenever Mayor Henry S. Patterson is absent for more than 72 hours.

Inauguration of Mr. Patterson as mayor for a two-year term was followed by the seating of two new councilmen, Alan W. Carrick and Joseph R. Wood. The governing body thus became 100 percent Republican.

Mayor Patterson named these committee heads to serve for the next 12 months:

COMMITTEEMEN NAMED

In Township. Departmental assignments for Township Committee members were announced at the Township re-organization meeting Monday night. Mayor R. Kenneth Fairman will continue to hold the portfolios of administration, finance, personnel and joint library. Thomas P. Cook will be in charge of police, fire and court and will continue to be the Township's representative on the Joint Sewer Operating Committee. He will also continue to work on a dog ordinance and on Open Space proposals and will be in charge of Township sewers.

John S. Mount will remain as planning, zoning and housing chief, and will also serve on building inspection and economic development committees.

Maurice F. Healey, Jr. will take over engineering and public works and public buildings and grounds. The Committee's new member, William Wilson, will have health, welfare and recreation.

Commending the Township staff for its continuing cooperation and competence, Mayor Fairman said that all members had been re-appointed. "We have a going concern," he said, "and we want to keep it stable and going."

He named the following to various Township boards:

Dr. William W. Marvel to a four-year term on the Joint Library Board of Trustees, as citizen-at-large. Dr. Marvel, who ran unsuccessfully last fall for a second term on Township Committee, was elected by Mayor Fairman for the quality and quantity of the work he had done as a member of Committee.

Alfred Bussell, Jr. to a five-year term on the Building Board of Appeals and a two-year term on the Board of Improvement Assessors.

Dr. William Kleinberg and Committeeman William L. Wilson to three-year terms on the Board of Health; Theodore G. Kane to a two-year term on the Board of Improvement Assessors.

James G. Campbell, Jr., William J. P. Geddes and

Leonard C. Johnson to three-year terms on the Zoning Board of Adjustment; William L. Wilson to a one-year term on the Local Assistance Board as the Committee's representative, and the Rev. David H. McAlpin, Jr., to a two-year term on the Board.

John R. Yost, Jr., to a five-year term on the Board of Recreation Commissioners.

HOMES ENTERED

On Lake Lane. Burglars pried into two homes on Lake Lane Friday night, ransacking one and taking $13 in bills and change from another.

Sometime between 7 and 9:45 p.m., a thief pried open a locked outer screen and inner door on the 51 Lake Lane home of Harwood Childs, taking $13 from a handbag, and ransacking the house thoroughly.

Between 5:45 and 9:15 p.m. on the same night on the same street, a thief—probably the same one, according to Township police—pried open a window in the home of Stanley E. Howard, 45 Lake Lane. Nothing is missing from the Howard home, but it had been disarranged, police said. Investigation is continuing on both cases.

SANTA REPORTS

To All Who Called. In a year-end report to all his constituents, Henry (Santa Claus) Schultz announced this week that 1,306 children telephoned him during his 19-day Christmas stint.

The 1,306 total breaks down into 678 separate calls (several siblings to a call), and more than 230 calls received over one three-day period. Princeton merchants contributed to a fund which Mr. Schultz may draw upon in the months after Christmas. The blind Santa Claus has said that he will purchase a new radio and a new record player.

In a statement of thanks, Mr. Schultz expressed his gratitude to the merchants who contributed to his fund, to the telephone company and to the press for its support.

News Of The THEATRES

THE BIG THREE COMING
Beckett, Sartre, Ionesco.
The off-Broadway production of Samuel Beckett's "Happy Days" will come to McCarter for a one-night stand next Friday, January 12.

The play has only two characters. It features a woman named "Winnie" who spends the entire course of action buried in a mound of sun-baked earth. Ruth White received high praise from New York critics for her sharp delineation of this difficult role.

Alan Schneider is the director of "Happy Days." Mr. Schneider is the personal American representative of Mr. Beckett, who makes his home in Paris.

The following night, Saturday, January 13, McCarter will present, in French, two classics of the modern avant-garde theatre. They are Jean-Paul Sartre's "Huis Clos," ("No Exit") and Ionesco's "La Cantatrice Chauve," ("The Bald Soprano").

These two productions have been brought to the United States direct from Paris and will be given in McCarter one night only.

Tickets for the Beckett are $3.90 and $2.90 at the McCarter box-office or at Male's Book Shop, 203 Nassau. Tickets for the two French plays are $3.90 and $2.90 also and are available at the same locations.

Presentation of the Sartre and Ionesco plays in French will mark the second time that Princeton has seen a production by the Jean de Rigault-Treteau de Paris Theatre Company. The first was M. de Rigault's production from the Theatre du Vieux-Columbier of Moliere's "Le Misanthrope," given here in 1959.

Jean de Rigault has arranged performances in several American university communities of well-known French classics during the past three years, all under the patronage of M. Edouard Morot-Sir, Cultural Counselor to the French Embassy. Their success has indicated to the French Cultural Counselor's office, and to M. de Rigault, that American university audiences are now ready for contemporary French theatre.

Sartre's play, "Huis-Clos," was written during the war and performed first in 1944 at the Theatre du Vieux-Columbier, gaining immediate success. It will be directed here by the noted French actress Tania Balachova, who created the role of Ines in the original production 17 years ago.

Ionesco's "La Cantatrice Chauve" is being staged for the present tour by Nicholas Bataille, who came into prominence when he directed the original production of "The Bald Soprano" at the Theatre des Nocturnes in 1958. The present production marks the first time that a play of Ionesco's has been professionally performed in America in the language of its origin.

THE PLAYHOUSE

"Flower Drum Song" (January 3-9) is the hoked-up Hollywood version of Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein's colorful Broadway musical of a few years back. Not even Hollywood, however, can dim the genius of one of America's greatest musical comedy teams, and the result is continuous movement and wonderful fun set against lovely music.

Plot is unimportant, for the beauty of "Flower Drum Song" lies in the colorful choreography and the music. While not the most memorable Rodgers and Hammerstein score, "Flower Drum Song" still has its high points, such as "A Hundred Million Miracles." And when lovely, leggy Nancy Kwan sings "I Enjoy Being a Girl," she's not the only one conscious of that all-too-obvious fact.

Miss Kwan last year's "Suzie Wong" is an attractive Chinese stripteuse. Miyoshi Ueki is a perky Oriental lass who falls in love with the wrong person, and Juquila Hall ("South Pacific's" Bloody Mary on stage and screen) is a confused mother with a voice of gold in color and wide screen. Rating: bright, bouncy musical treat.

Bachelor in Paradise (Jan. 10-16) is a Bob Hope comedy, with all that that description implies. Fans of Hope will enjoy his antics and his wry comments as the author of a

MUSIC In Princeton

FRAGER TO PLAY HERE

In Recital Monday, Malcolm Frager, who began playing piano solos with orchestras at the age of 6, will give a recital Monday at 8:30 in McCarter Theatre. Now 25, he is internationally-known for his brilliant playing.

His program here will consist of a Bach "Tocatta in G minor," Haydn's "Sonata No. 46 in A flat major," two "Nocturnes," Opus 21, F major and D major by Schumann; Chopin's "Scherzo in B minor," Opus 20; and, following the intermission, Prokofiev's "Sonata No. 6 in A major." Opus 82 His appearance here is the second in Series I of the Princeton University Concerts.

As a child prodigy in St. Louis, Mr. Frager began giving recitals at age 6 and played with a number of mid-western symphony orchestras. He studied under several well-known teachers, notably Rudolph Serkin, and made his New York appearance in Town Hall at the age of 17.

Following magna cum laude graduation from Columbia University, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, he won the two most coveted awards in piano playing. One was the Leventritt International Competition, the other, the Queen Elizabeth of Belgium competition.

Against a field of 12 finalists in the latter, he unanimously was voted winner of the top $3000 prize. A Belgium critic called The New York Times: "Frager is a remarkable first laureate in this contest who deeply understands music and book on "How America Lives," who has settled down in a suburban California town (Paradise) to gather first-hand material.

The usual innocent entanglements are misconstrued and Hope winds up in court as the correspondent in three infidelity suits brought by irate husbands in the community. The lavish color and widescreen production features a host of lovely women, including Lana Turner, Janis Paige and Paula Prentiss. The leggy Miss Prentiss, by the way, appears for the third time with Jim Hutton, and the teaming is getting quite boring. She is a talented comedienne in her own right, possibly the best new one Hollywood has produced in some years, and deserves a chance to break away from type-casting.

Director Jack Arnold has mixed enough sophisticated comedy with pure slapstick to suit most people, and Hal Kanter and the late Valentine Davies collaborated on the script to provide Hope with usually amusing lines. Rating where there's Hope, there's humor.

THE GARDEN

Girl With A Suitcase (January 3 - 6) won the "Best National Selection" prize in the 1961 Cannes International Film Festival as the Italian entry. A powerful, if confused, picture, it at least has the virtue of introducing a fine Italian actress to American audiences, the lovely Claudia Cardinale.

Miss Cardinale plays a foot-loose, wandering girl who really doesn't care whether or not tomorrow ever comes. She tries to get from life all the good without giving anything of herself. Her unemotional involvements with various people, extorting money from them, may crush them, but they leave her unchanged.

The message of director Valerio Zurlini is a bit fuzzy, perhaps because of the brilliant acting of Miss Cardinale, who (as with all actors in foreign films) is handicapped by the language barrier between her and the American audience. She wins much sympathy (even through subtitles) in an unsympathetic role and thereby clouds Zurlini's issues. Rating: adult Italian drama.

The Kitchen (January 7-9) is a 75-minute off-beat drama filmed in England and adapted to the screen from a play by Angry Young Man Arnold Wesker. Billed as a picture that will make you pause the next time you go into a restaurant, this film will also appeal to patrons of avant-garde films who are on the watch for something different.

The action unfolds in the kitchen of a large London restaurant where the pot boils over with drama, love, jealousy, tension, dreams and physical violence. Chefs, cooks, bakers, dish washers and waitresses are seen in progressive states of agitation: before, during and after mealtime. Then the world of the kitchen stops for one character.

This gelatinous dissertation on the state of the world and man's place therein is enhanced by fine performances from Carl Mohner, Mary Yeamans, Brian Phelan and Eric Pholmann. An impression of bewilderment is heightened by a smorgasbord-like musical background.

A Cold Wind in August (January 10-16) features Lola Albright as a strip-tease dancer and Scott Marlowe as an unsophisticated adolescent. This unlikely pair is drawn together over a broken air conditioner and a love affair ensues.

The love affair is depicted in torrid detail and feverish implication. It is set against the background of a sweltering New York City summer, and the cold wind comes when the boy, who came to fix the air conditioner, realizes he's getting burned.

A Troy Films Production, this aberration in celluloid is another short feature, filling 80 embarrassing minutes. Harmless for adults, certainly raw but hardly realistic. In the summer it would be unbearable.

BOOTS AND SADDLES!

Up-River Rodeo. Being of a conventional turn of mind, we would never have thought to look in Lambertville, N. J. for the caparisons of a western row pony, but this only serves to illustrate the limitations of a conventional mind, because there they are. The caparisons, we mean.

Taking a left turn from Bridge Street down South Main one recent afternoon, we found The Rodeo Shop and within the Rodeo Shop we found the most complete, varied, authentic and fantastically colorful collection of riding equipment this side of Taos.

The Rodeo Shop has been around a long time (about eight years) but it has specialized, until recently, in western riding gear. Now it has added an English department for the benefit of Princeton riders who eschew the pommel and the chop.

Within the English part of the shop, you can buy imported English saddles, boots, breeches, jodhpurs, hunt caps and even horse cuff-links (for you, not for the horse). These are designed for men, women and children, even little ones no more than nine hands high.

There are pony harnesses for that cart Santa Claus brought, and pony saddles and bridles. You'll find snaffle bridles and Pelham bridles and stirrups and quirts and magnificent silk scarves with horses posed self-consciously all over them.

Crossing the divide into the western part of The Rodeo Shop, you discover a wall of cowboy boots. When we gulped at the panorama before us, Mr. Cohen, the owner, shrugged and said he was a little low in stock right now. After Christmas, you know. As a rule, he has about 500 different boots on the shelves.

We saw such fancies as turquoise suede boots, brown suede with sunbursts of yellow leather, elegant white (colored ones for Saturday night, brown leather that looks quilted and some unobtrusive plain browns or blacks.

Riding clothes come in every conceivable style from Levis to suave colored trousers in, say, turquoise or sand. There are suede jackets or blanket jackets for men or women and fine moccasins to wear instead of horse shoes.

Ladies will turn to the hand-tooled leather handbags, some so small they can dangle from the wrist, others large enough to hold a small cow pony.

Among the various pieces of western jewelry, we found a collection of belt buckles which are almost as large as dollar bills. They have been etched and chased and wrought in a truly dazzling manner.

We have saved the best for the last. The Rodeo Shop is a big barn of a place, not at all 'shoppe' in appearance. As you go in the front door, you find yourself in a craftsman's workshop where a master leather worker is making Western saddles, to custom.

See Here!

At first, it may sound like Utopia, but on closer examination — (carefully!) — it turns out to be something of an optical illusion.

We refer to Bellows' Rosemarie bathing suit, the one that is transparent. Yes. You can see through this bathing suit. It is made of a Lycra that is transparent only when held up to the light and peered through. We tried and it was. You can even take a picture through it, but we had no Leica for the Lycra.

On the bathing suit is primarily opaque. It is covered all over with bursting gold and yellow sunflowers, for one thing, and they effectively screen the view.

It is also ridiculously light in weight and will dry almost before it is wet. There is a draped green-fern model, too, if you'd rather look through ferns than sunflowers.

This was, originally, the backbone of the shop, and it still accounts for a large part of the profits. Western saddles, priced from $200 to $300, are made for riders as far north as upstate New York and as far south as Delaware and Maryland. The leather shop also does repair work on harnesses, bridles and anything from the tack room that isn't all it should be.

You need a new Western saddle? Allow four to six weeks.

BYE, BYE, MUU MUU

No Tears. Of all the fashions that have faded in and faded out, the least to be lamented, in our opinion, will be muu muu, last year's visitor from Hawaii.

We have it on authority from Bellows that the muu muu is out out and the shift is in. In any case, Bellows has had some shifts made in Hawaii with matching bathing suits and jackets, and the result is a clear defeat for the most shapeless garment ever inflicted on man.

A shift, for the benefit of those who are not beachcombers, is a straight dress held in at the waist by a narrow sash. Sleeveless, boat or round neck. The most dazzling one is a white arnel with buttons down the side. Next in line is a frangipani print in wild colors on — Continued on Page 8

Campaign Clarified.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

In the news section of this issue of your paper you have kindly printed the announcement by the Central New Jersey Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, that Mrs. James J. Reed of 20 Murray Place, has been appointed chairman of the house-to-house March for Multiple Sclerosis, to be held in Princeton this spring.

May I add a word of explanation that may prevent the confusion of last year when another MS group from East Orange attempted to enlist Princeton workers, summed it was the same as the local MS Chapter with headquarters in Ternton.

The points of difference are:

1. The East Orange group is raising money for a nursing home to be built in North Jersey. It is an entirely independent group.
2. The Central New Jersey Chapter is the only MS group chartered by the National MS Society and supporting national research, in addition to caring for local MS patients.
3. The symbol of the local MS Chapter is the MS Hope Chest.

I want to emphasize again that we are not trying to answer the question of the relative values of a nursing home as against research. We do, however, feel an obligation to make clear the difference between the two MS organizations and their objectives.

May I repeat, it is the earnest hope of the Central New Jersey Chapter that ways can be found for it and the other group to unite in efforts to fight multiple sclerosis. Until this happens, the two remain separate.

Should any of your readers have questions, Mrs. Reed would be glad to hear from them at WA 4-0863, or they may call me at my home WA 4-3339 or the Chapter office, EX 3-8625.

white. This last has a matching jacket, long enough to cover the matching bathing suit, which has spaghetti straps, a cut-out back, a boned top (like a top round roast) and boy leg. Sounds cryptic, but the girls will know what we mean.

That white arnel shift has matching pants, and there are gold raspberry and pants, too, to wear with all that frangipani color.

One other thing you'll like: a flared, side-buttoned tropical print skirt that can be also worn, like a poncho, over your bathing suit.

McMullen, shuddering briefly at all this high style, goes its impeccable way again this cruise year, combining faultless linen shorts in powder green, powder blue, raspberry, honey-gold and the like, with refreshing white blouses printed with sharp, bright and highly original prints: violets in blue or purple, each flower clearly apart from the others; puppy faces; ships and nautical ensigns; minute orchids all against a spanking white.

With these are skirts in linen, silk linen or something called Weathercloth that is like a staunch poplin.

Wear with all these concoctions a pair of Pappagallo shells, either the sling-back with front bow (lemon) or the navy and white with ticking lining or the tan with a cluster of buttons for a bow.

Sandal-footed maidens will find three thigh styles: lacquer red with no heel, black and shiny with a medium heel that gives a "mule" look and white with a very wide strap.

For getting there, you'll want a navy medium-heel pump with red piping and a navy knit suit with double-breasted short jacket. Or Kimberly's yellow knit with a sleeveless blouse and a heringbone jacket that has plain revers picking up the texture of the blouse.

Anne Fogarty sends a silk linen princess with a belt and a big, soft bow at the neck and an easy, princess sheath with orange piping on beige.

TO COLLECT

From Tibet, China. Two-hundred-year-old Chinese and Tibetan scrolls have found their way to Charlton Street and are now on display and for sale at Rina Galleries, where they share the wall space with etchings by Martin Ries.

The largest of the three scrolls is a Chinese hanging about five by eight feet, encompassing within the sweep of two peacocks' tails a group of bird pairs, showing the birds in flight. (All in pairs, that is, except one lone, black swallow.) The painting has been done on silk.

A Tibetan scroll, much smaller, employs an exquisitely detailed technique to show a group of female figures seated on lotus flowers. The central one rides a wild-eyed dragon, but the rest are more serene.

The same detailed work, handled in a much freer style, has been used in the third scroll, a fragile Tibetan treasure showing Kwan Yin (Rina thinks it is Kwan Yin). This is a florid and lovely work with a lighter tone and feeling than the other Tibetan scroll.

Turning to the graphic art of Martin Ries, the visitor to Rina finds a fascinating collection of etchings "in process" which allow the observer to trace the production, step by step, to the final work. The plate of "Sacred Landscape" is on display also.

There is, in addition, a small group of linoleum prints done in the artist's early years and containing within them the seed of his larger, expanded concepts.

Where to Glide and Slide and Ride

Four hills and a lake will be available this winter for citizens who enjoy transportation by sled or skate.

Sgt. Jack Petrone, who has been appointed by the Playground Committee to succeed Borough Chief Peter McCrohan as winter sports director, has announced these locations for sledding:

Borough: Linden Lane between Nassau and Hamilton, and Harriet Drive between Nassau and Hamilton.

Township: Walnut Lane between Valley and Terhune, and Roper Road between Random Road and Littlebrook Drive.

These streets will be blocked off from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. on days when there is enough snow to go around. Children are asked not to tamper with the barriers, signs and lights set out to protect them.

Skating: Lake Carnegie ice between the University Boat House and the Harrison Street Bridge, and in front of the sailboat docks on the Princeton-Kingston Road below Harry's Brook, will be tested and skaters are urged to stay within these boundaries.

When skating is safe, the usual white flag with its red center will fly on the corner of Witherspoon and Nassau in front of Western Union.

Additional skating or sledding information may be obtained from Sgt. Petrone at WA 4-4339, or from Borough police (WA 4-4141) or Township police (WA 4-3105).

BUSINESS In Princeton

A MERRY CHRISTMAS!
For Merchants. A skimming sample of eight Princeton shops shows that the 1961 Christmas season was very good indeed, and better than last year on the whole, despite some competition from discount houses.

Last year, of course, stores were plagued by blizzards that sent customers to the mail-order catalogues. But the weather alone does not, in the opinion of most shop-keepers, account for the better showing.

"The town is growing, so there are more people to shop," was one comment.

"The longer you're in business, the smarter you get," was another. "You don't make the same mistakes you made last year, so business is bound to be a little better."

A men's wear shop reported business 12 percent above 1960. A women's specialty shop reported no percentage, but an "excellently satisfying" season, much better than 1960.

One gift shop reported business "excellent," with a 15-20 percent increase over 1960, mainly because of better weather. "If we had a bigger store, we could do even better," was the comment.

A drug store did "extremely well indeed," much better than expected. Another gift shop reported "good," slightly better than last year.

Discount competition bruised some Princeton stores. One said that business was off from 1960. "There didn't seem to be as many people uptown as there were last year, and we think the discount houses had something to do with it."

Another shop owner, reporting business "all right," and about the same as last year, said of the discount stores, "Let's be realistic: they didn't help."

One owner of a shop said that many customers reported purchases made at discount houses. "We didn't do the volume we did last year, and the discount store is sure accounted for some of the loss."

A Nassau Street philosopher shrugged and said, "They're part of the American way of life now—they're an institution we have to live with. But I tell my customers: you get what you pay for."

INTEREST GOES UP

At First National. Interest on First National Bank Savings Certificates have been increased to 4 percent, with a maturity of one year, effective January 1. This amounts to a one-third increase in the bank's interest rate on savings certificates.

Interest at 4 percent will be compounded quarterly with a maximum deposit of $25,000. There will be no two-year waiting period before the 4 percent benefit can be realized, bank officials said in making the announcement.

The new rate is effective from the day of deposit to the day of maturity, one year later. It is the highest rate permitted by law to be paid on savings by a commercial bank member of the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The First National will continue to pay 3 percent on regular savings accounts in which funds can be deposited for withdrawal at any time. Interest is compounded on a quarterly basis in these accounts, also.

CAPITAL FUNDS RAISED
To $3 Million. Princeton Bank and Trust Company has increased its capital funds to $3 million by the addition of $300,000 from retained earnings.

Bank officials said this week that the increase will result in capital and surplus of $2,300,000, undivided profits of $500,000 and an increased legal lending limit of $250,000 to any one borrower.

During 1961, the bank's total deposits increased by $3-

REPUBLICANS CELEBRATE: At the traditional New Year's Day reception following Borough inauguration ceremonies, victorious Republicans shared with all the townspeople their hopes for a productive and happy new year in Princeton. 500,000, according to George R. Cook, III, president. The ratio of a bank's capital accounts to total deposits is a generally accepted measure of the safety of funds on deposit, and the bank's action in increasing its capital funds maintains the 8 percent ratio which the bank has had. This is one of the highest ratios in the state for banks the size of Princeton Bank and Trust.

AND STILL GOING UP

Postal Receipts Rise. Postal receipts in Princeton are still on the rise, according to an announcement this week by Postmaster Charles F. Murray. Mr. Murray said that postal receipts for 1961 totalled $1,432,770. This is an increase of $134,041 over last year's total of $1,318,729.

DIRECTORS ELECTED

By Local Firm. Two men have been elected to the board of directors of Creative Playthings, Inc., it has been announced by Frank Caplan, president.

They are Julian F. Olney, Jr., of A. C. Becker and Co., investment bankers, and Dr. James J. Hymes, Jr., professor of education and chairman of the early childhood department of the University of Maryland. The firm makes toys and learning aids for home and school.

AFRICAN FILMS PLANNED

For January 11. The African Affairs Committee will sponsor the showing of two films on Africa Thursday, January 11, at 7:30 in 10 McCosh Hall. There will be no admission charge. A brief discussion of the group's "Books for Africa" drive will precede the films.

A short feature, "This Is Tanganyika," will open the program, with the full-length film, "Come Back, Africa," to be the main presentation. The latter is a story of racial conflict, filmed by Lionel Rogosin in and around Johannesburg.

The filming, which took 18 months, was concealed from the South African authorities. The government jailed the entire cast when it learned of the content.

The film won the Italian Critics Award at the Venice Film Festival in 1959, and received a special prize at the Vancouver Film Festival the same year for "most significant advance in content, means of expression and technique." The problems of unemployment, drink, street gangs and apartheid system are explored.

NEW LIBRARY PLANNED

By Westminster College. Plans for a new, 15,000-volume library for Westminster Choir College have been announced by Dr. Noel Sargent, acting president.

In addition to offices and workroom space, the proposed library would include a reading room seating 50 students and three phonograph listening rooms, seating a total of 15 students. The present library contains 8,000 books, a 25-student reading room and two phonograph listening rooms.

John C. Peck, Jr., the school's librarian, said that there is also need for a seminar room, typing room, microfilm reading room, archives section and a room to store an anthem collection. The school's anthem collection contains 60 or more copies of over 750 anthems and is used by music students throughout the state.

DRAMA IS TOPIC

Of Wyman Club Lecturer. Alan S. Downer, Princeton University professor in the Department of English, will speak on "Drama and The Theatre" at a meeting of the Wyman Club to be held January 15 at 8 in the staff lounge of Firestone Library.

A discussion period and refreshments will follow the meeting. The Wyman Club is composed of graduate students wives.

BOOKLET PUBLISHED

To Attract Teachers. The Borough Board of Education and the Borough Teachers' Association have published a 16-page booklet, "Professional Careers in Education." It is designed "to attract the best teachers in their respective fields for the Borough Schools," according to its authors.

The booklet, containing many black-and-white photographs, was prepared under the direction of Mrs. Alan W. Richards and Frederick Siebels with the assistance of Dr. Chester Stroup, superintendent of schools. It presents a picture of opportunities in the Borough school system.

It also discusses the advantages of the Princeton community to persons in the field of education. Two final sections deal with personnel policies and salary and retirement plans.

ANNUAL MEETING SET

For Memorial Association. The Princeton Memorial Association will hold its sixth annual meeting Tuesday at 8 in the Assembly Room of the First Presbyterian Church. Harry McCloskey, president of the Delaware Eye Bank, will speak, following the election of new board members.

Mrs. George W. Loos, president of the Association, said that Eye Bank pledge cards would be available. Also on hand will be information concerning the donation of ear bones for research.

Wholly advisory, non-profit and non-denominational, the Memorial Association was formed to assist those who want to insure in advance that their death will not cause their loved ones to be confronted with decisions about details during their bereavement. It will also insure that their burial will be simple, dignified and according to their religious beliefs. The aims of the group have been endorsed by the Princeton Pastor's Association.

SCHEDULE FILM

On Communism. A film, "Communism on the Map," will be shown at the Monday meeting of the Princeton Business and Professional Women's Club. The group will meet at 7:30 in the Assembly Room of the First Presbyterian Church.

Rudely W. Cook will be present to answer any questions on the film, which is owned by the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Paul Herriek, chairman of the Club's Health and Safety Committee, has charge of the meeting.

AUDUBON FILM LISTED

By Naturalist Club. The Trenton Naturalist Club's Audubon Screen Tour, third in a series, will be shown Friday at 8 at Trenton's Junior High School No. 3, West State Street and Parkside Avenue. The screen tour is open to the public and tickets may be obtained at the door.

The all-color film will be presented by Bristol Foster of Toronto, Canada. To obtain material for the film, Mr. Foster travelled 55,000 miles through Africa, Asia and Australia, collecting and photographing many strange and rare forms of animal life. A former collector of mammals for the Royal Ontario Museum, he is now teaching at the University of British Columbia.

ART GROUP TO MEET

At Hillsboro School. The South Somerset Guild of Creative Arts will meet Tuesday at 8 at the Hillsboro School, Route 206. Two films, "Dancers' World" with Marita Graham and "African Rhythms" will be shown.

The Guild has announced that it has leased a building.

on Anwell Road to be used as a studio for children and adult art classes and as a gallery to exhibit work of member and guest artists. It was leased with the sponsorship of the Recreation Commission of Hillsboro Township. The opening date and hours will be announced later.

FILM SERIES TO RESUME. With "On the Waterfront." With the showing of the Academy Award winner, "On the Waterfront," the Famous Film Series at the Princeton YMCA will resume next Wednesday evening at 8:15. The picture stars Marlon Brando, Karl Malden and Eva Marie Saint and ex-boxers, Tami Mauriello, Tony Galento and Abe Simon. Tickets are available at the Y office on Avalon Place or at the box office.

ADULT SCHOOL READY

For Second Term Program. The Princeton Adult School will begin the second term of its 20th year on Thursday, February 8. Classes will be held on Thursday evenings for ten weeks in Princeton High School, Moore Street. "The World of Jazz," taught by John S. Wilson, critic for the New York Times, will be one of the new courses offered during the second term. During the two-hour classes Mr. Wilson will play records from his own collection to trace the history of jazz.

Mr. Wilson produces the radio program "World of Jazz," broadcast on Wednesday evenings by WQXI. The program is also carried by the Voice of America and translated into five languages by Radio Free Europe.

Another course, "Techniques of Fiction," is being repeated, of popular request. Classes will be held on Tuesday evenings from 8 to 9:30 at Miss Fine's School. Miss Caroline Gordon, teacher and author, will be instructor.

The course, limited in size, will be devoted to a study of basic fictional techniques with examples from the classics and contemporary works. Work done by class members will be read and discussed in the light of techniques studied. It is the only course which will not meet on Thursdays.

The Adult School, a non-profit, self-supporting enterprise, is open to all area residents. Full course descriptions and information on registration will be made available soon. Those who wish to obtain further information now may write the school at P. O. Box 701, Princeton, or call WA 1-6548.

METERS APPROVED

For Tulane West Yard. Borough Council has authorized the installation of parking meters in the Tulane West Parking Yard, an interior-block area between Witherspoon and Tulane Streets.

COURSE IN JAZZ OFFERED: John S. Wilson, critic for the New York Times, will teach a new course, "The World of Jazz," during the second term of the Princeton Adult School, which will begin February 8.

The resolution, passed unanimously at Council's year-end session last Wednesday, provides for metered parking between the hours of 8 and 6. Another resolution limits parking in the yard to two hours.

In other action, Council approved an extension of the terms of the liquor license of the Nassau Inn to permit serving of alcoholic beverages in a planned addition which will include a swimming pool.

Councilman Albert A. Austin, chairman of Council's committee on the future of Princeton, announced the election of officers of the Borough Housing Authority. The new officers are Joseph Redding, chairman; Kenneth Wells, vice-chairman; George Cameron, treasurer; and Mrs. Gloria Michaels, secretary.

SOVIET TO SPEAK

For Princeton UN. Valerian Aleksandrovich Zorin, deputy minister for foreign affairs of the Soviet Union and ambassador to the United Nations for his country, will speak next Wednesday in Princeton. Ambassador Zorin has accepted an invitation to address the Princeton Community Chapter of the American Association for the United Nations and the Whig-Closophic Society of Princeton at 8:30 p.m. in 50 McCosh on the University Campus. The meeting will be open to the public.

He will speak on the Soviet Union's position in the current United Nations session, and will also discuss Berlin, the arms race, Red China and other international problems. Following his speech, he will answer questions, submitted by members of the audience.

Ambassador Zorin is noted as a theoretician of the Communist Party and as a Soviet diplomat. After World War II, he was ambassador to Czechoslovakia and later ambassador to West Germany. His visit to Princeton is one of his rare appearances outside the United Nations.

THREE WILL SPEAK

On Fallout Shelters. Dr. John Turkevich, moderator for the forum on nuclear fallout sponsored by the Greater Princeton Chamber of Commerce and Civic Council, will share the platform with three other scientists.

The forum will be held at Palmer Laboratories on the Princeton campus at 7:30 p.m. next Thursday, January 11.

Dr. Eugene P. Wigner, consultant to the Atomic Energy Commission since 1942, will speak on the blast, fire and fall-out effects of a nuclear explosion.

Dr. Jack A. Vernon of the Princeton department of psychology, will discuss life in a fall-out shelter. Dr. Vernon was the director of Project Hideaway, in which a family of five lived for two weeks in a shelter.

Clinton Clement, the third speaker, a member of the West Windsor Police Auxiliary and a lay authority on civil defense, will speak on the practical aspects of shelter construction.

Following the speakers, members of the audience may ask questions.

GOHLEN REPORTS

Progress from Tension. The Annual Report of Dr. Robert

F. Gohlen, president of Princeton University, was issued this week. The 42-page booklet includes a 15-page essay entitled "Out of Tension, Progress."

The quality of higher education is improving as a result of the increase in the number of students seeking admission to college, Dr. Gohlen says. He cites the growth of two-year community colleges and post-doctoral training programs as examples of.

Question of the Week

Question: What do you feel was the most important event of 1961?

Where asked: Palmer Square

Mrs. Marc Bodine, 199 Snowden Lane, housewife: I guess man into space was the most important thing that happened in 1961 and I wouldn't make any distinction between Gagarin and Sheppard. Let's just say it was an important feat to mankind.

Walter M. Cramp, 10 Westcott Road, advertising and marketing consultant: I think the most important thing was building that wall and setting up a blockade between East and West Berlin. There's been more publicity and concern on that than anything I can think of. The wall has brought everything to a head. It has helped strengthen, I feel, NATO and the West. Until this happened, I think everybody was living on false hopes.

Mrs. G. Alfred Reynolds, The Great Road, secretary: I think the most important thing that happened was the spiritual growth that took place in this country.

Lawrence N. Houston, 459 Walnut Lane, psychologist: I think the emergence of so many new countries in Africa certainly has had an effect on the entire world. It precipitated all kinds of maneuvers by Khrushchev and other world leaders. I feel it is even affecting the methods of the American Negroes in asserting themselves. Seeing these backward countries in Africa getting rights that they themselves don't enjoy has led them to feel more direct means should be used. Finally, this emergence has changed the entire structure of the United Nations.

Mrs. Lawrence Griggs, Faeher Road, Lawrence Township, housewife: To me it's been the first year of the Kennedy Administration. It has been a test of his ability to handle both foreign and domestic affairs and I think he has had a more difficult time, the challenges have been greater than he at first realized. Under the circumstances, I think he has met them quite successfully.

Miss Gloria Dey, Rocky Hill, student, Georgian Court College: I think the forthright stands President Kennedy has taken on important issues that have come up throughout the year. Finally, decisions have been made, especially on Berlin and the Russians, that had to be made.

Miss Trudy Schleifer, 82 Jefferson Road, secretary-student: I think the most important event was putting our spaceman, Alan Sheppard, into space. It put our country back in the running with Russia.

Jesse Bratcher, 8 Shirley Court, cook: To me, it was a personal thing. After three years of marriage, we are going to have an addition to our family. We are very excited and looking forward to it.

Miss Anne MacNeil, Cherry Valley Road, student, Miss Fine's School: I think the most important thing was the orbit-

ing of the Russian cosmonaut into space.

Norbert Riedl, Norgate, Lawrence Township, scholarship and administration, ETS: I think Russia's resuming nuclear testing and dropping that 50 megaton bomb. This action will probably force us into testing sooner or later, as is quite evident.

Miss Sandra Guildar, 12 Shadybrook Lane, guidance counselor: I think the crisis over Berlin, the shutting off of the border and the implication it has as far as leading to a nuclear war and the destruction of humanity.

Gregory P. Tschebotarioff, 103 Mercer Street, Professor of Civil Engineering, Princeton University: I think Gagarin's flight was probably the most important. It was man's first flight into space.

Miss Sarah Roman, S. Main Street, Hightstown, teacher: President Kennedy taking office, because I think the country needed a change in administration in Washington.

John A. Joule, 47 University Place, research assistant: The decision of the Russian government to resume nuclear testing. I would say that is one of the things with most import. The effect it may have on the American government; it may force them to resume testing.

Richard S. Reed, 18 Cleveland Road, Hopewell Township, engineer: I suspect the inauguration of Kennedy and the change in policy that went along with it.

Miss Ann Bailey, Point Pleasant Beach, librarian: I don't know if it was the most important, but the most provocative incident to me was the closing of the boundary between East and West Berlin. This has stimulated a lot of thought both nationally and internationally.

Joseph A. McKee, Yardley, Pa., contractor: The birth of my first daughter.

Gay Morgan, 1220 Park Avenue, NYC, student at Westover: I would say the explosion of the 100 megaton bomb by the Russians was the most important in a negative way. I think it was dangerous and disgusting.

James Sullivan, Old Bridge, clerk, Princeton Bank and Trust Company: I think the stand that President Kennedy took against Khrushchev over Berlin. He didn't let Khrushchev intimidate him.

Patterson's Recommendations for 1962

(Following is the complete text of the New Year's Day address delivered at Borough Hall by Mayor Henry S. Patterson.)

It is an honor and a thrill to have been elected Mayor by the citizens of Princeton Borough. I welcome the opportunity this New Year's Day to continue the custom of presented the Mayor's annual message to the citizens of the Borough and to the members of its Council. Today is the time, by tradition, to review
the past year, so recently ended, and to take a forward
look into the year just beginning. For me, there has been no "past"—at least in terms of having been a part of the Borough government's accomplishments or disappointments.
during 1961. However, I will very much a part of the future of our town. At the outset of my term of office, it is most appropriate that I outline for you my conception of what I hope the future may hold for the Borough.

I get the impression that many among us have resigned themselves to the belief that,
inevitably, the character of the Borough as the residential and educational community we all enjoy, is destined to undergo some drastic changes. Such changes are in the direction of increased population density and business growth caused by the much-publicized "Trend to the Suburbs" and the apparent magic of a Princeton mailing address on one's office let-terhead.

I want to say right now that I disagree with this feeling. I do not believe there is anything
"inevitable" about the future development of the Borough.
This town can be exactly what we want it to be, if we will discipline ourselves and work towards our objective.

"Preserve the Borough." My personal conviction is that the Borough should and can remain a residential, educational, center. We have here an exciting opportunity to preserve and to create, a really unique and lovely community which can serve as a model and inspiration to other municipalities in this country.

To realize the full potential of this challenge will take wisdom to plan intelligently, willingness to turn down great
and quick financial gain, and courage to stick by difficult zoning and planning decisions
directed toward preserving and improving Princeton Borough.
I feel confident our citizens—
and particularly our fine educational institutions—share my vision of this kind of "Borough of the Future." I know they will give to me, to Council and to all our salaried or appointed officials their enthu-sastic support in our efforts to make this vision a reality.

What, specifically, then must we do? First, we should take all possible, immediate steps to remove the threat of Urban Renewal procedures from the Princeton scene.

Whatever the far-reaching
purpose of these procedures,
their introduction in our small Borough, in actual practice,
has resulted in delays and inaction rather than useful accomplishment. The threat of a blight declaration will often furnish, in any given area, a prime excuse for the abandoning of the proper maintenance of properties on the part of those who otherwise would be prepared to meet their neighborhood responsibilities.

Top Priority for By-pass.
Next, we must obtain from the State of New Jersey top priority for the construction of the Route 206A by-pass. We must determine the exact status of this proposal and if it has been put on the shelf, we must bring to bear the considerable influence of the Princeton Community to make it become a reality.

Here is an area where our local newspapers by means of pictures of the trailer trucks
that daily endanger our children and 'og or streets, and our public spirited citizens can join together to acquaint many others throughout the State of the dire necessity of such a by-pass so that Princeton, as Princeton, can continue to exist. I suspect that we shall need such assistance from everyone within the Borough,

and in neighboring communities, if we are to succeed, as we must.

A truck by-pass, while of major importance, cannot solve all the traffic problems of the Borough or of the surrounding communities. We must take aggressive steps to solve some of our local traffic problems.
It is time that we settle the uncertainty and confusion with regard to a new alignment of Jackson Street.

It is my recommendation to Council that immediate steps be taken to meet with the property owners involved, with a view towards the acquisition
by the Borough of the property necessary for a new Jackson Street that will eliminate the dangerous traffic conditions that now exist at the intersection of Jackson, Witherspoon, and Wiggins Streets,
and at the intersection of Jackson, John and Avalon Place. The construction of a new Jackson Street will be undertaken, however, only with the understanding that no one will be summarily dispossessed
from his present residence to make way for the new street.
We must be sure that these residents are not made homeless as the result of Borough action in this regard.

Cooperation with Neighbors.
So long as the Borough continues to be a small entity, in terms of area, but an important factor in the economic welfare of a much larger area,
the Borough must foster cooperation with neighboring municipalities and particularly with the Township. In many fields, I propose that the Borough take the leadership in fostering such cooperation and in exploring the feasibility of joint action where common interests exist.

We are opening a valuable
new channel of information between the two Princeton municipalities by our appointment as Borough Attorney of Gordon Griffin, Esquire, who has served as the Township
Attorney for many years. Mr.
Griffin is being retained by both municipalities in 1962.
The fact which I have just mentioned was certainly not the paramount one in our selection of the Borough Attorney, but I am sure that it will be recognized that this may well prove to be a valuable first step in the direction of closer cooperation—in bringing together the two Prince-tons, not as a consolidated entity, but as a single community of interest.

There are other areas, of course, where cooperation
must exist for our mutual welfare.

Planning.—I propose to encourage liaison between the Planning Boards of the two municipalities. For instance, there should be an established practice that would permit an easy and willing link between the Open Space Sub-committee of the Township and the Planning Board of the Borough.

Recreation.—The Borough
should study the need for a Board of Recreation Commissioners, rather than an Advisory Committee on Recreation. Would not such a commission make it more feasible
for the Borough to join with the Township, which already has such a commission, in locating, acquiring, and developing recreational facilities, which can be used by both Borough and Township residents, but which quite obviously will of necessity be located outside of the Borough?
This is a question to which we must soon find the answer.

Library.—As we all know,
the Joint Library Board is now planning for a new library. In the planning for this much needed new facility,
there has to be and there will be close cooperation between the Borough and the Township,

MAYOR PATTERSON'S recommendations include the need for a new Borough Hall.

to work out the problems of timing, site acquisition, financing, and the like.

Civil Defense and Disaster Control.—The Borough and the Township already jointly share
the service of a single Director of Civil Defense and Disaster Control; and I might say that Captain Sage is a most dedicated director. With all signs pointing toward the formulation of a Federal policy with regard to fallout shelters and the likelihood that this policy
will encourage community
shelters, the Borough will be faced with many decisions regarding this program, or some other during the coming year;
and I cannot envision that whatever program or policy is eventually adopted can be a success or even thinkable without close cooperation with the Township.

These are just some of the priority areas where common interests appear to be logical and desirable.

There are, of course, many other problems that the Borough must face next year and, in the year after that. Some are simple things—or at least appear to be—such as keeping our streets and sidewalks tidy
so that we give the clean, neat appearance that is expected of us.

Others are more difficult—
such as the development of the parking areas which the Borough has recently acquired or is in the process of acquiring.
They must be landscaped in such a way that they will not be an eyesore and a nuisance
to those who live in the vicinity of them and at the same time they must be sufficiently convenient to businesses so that they will be profitably utilized.

New Borough Hall Needed.
One final query for our citizens and the Council—how much longer can the employees of the Borough be asked to work under the present conditions that exist at Borough Hall? The question of a new Borough Hall on this site, or the modernization of the present building has been suggested by many before me.
But, a thorough study of the pros and cons of the subject
has been too long delayed.

Action has been postponed
by the hopes of many for immediate consolidation of the two Princetons. I do not believe that consolidation will be accomplished in the immediate future, or that a new or remodeled Borough Hall would be a waste of taxpayers' money
if consolidation occurs sooner than I would think possible.

I am aware of the serious responsibilities that become mine this day. I salute those past mayors and a councilman of Princeton, Borough who have so effectively borne these responsibilities during their terms of office. In particular,
I, as a citizen, want to thank Ray Male for the contributions that he has made as our Mayor
during the past four years, and before that as a Councilman.

I am becoming increasingly aware of the personal sacrifices he made, and the time he spent, in fulfillment of his opportunity for municipal service. I am also most appreciative of the assistance he has given me in smoothing the change-over between my administration and his.

We are also losing today two Councilmen, Councilman Dau-
D. Coyle and Councilman John

B. Redding, Jr., who have given long and valued service to their community. They, too, have been more than generous with their time in assisting their successors to prepare for the year ahead, and I know that we can continue to call on them for advice and assistance.

Fortunately, Councilmen Coyle and Redding are being replaced today by two very able men, Alan W. Carrick and Joseph R. Wood, who, I know, will continue the high standard of service to the Borough that we have come to expect from our Council.

However, whatever the individual abilities of the Mayor and of the Council, the Borough cannot function without the effective teamwork of the "regular" Borough employees, those whose job it is to protect us, to provide the everyday services that we require, and to collect the monies that are necessary to keep the wheels of Government going. I wonder if these are not the forgotten people of our Borough.

Forgotten or not, taken for granted or not, they are competent, loyal fellow citizens who are working hard day in day out, around the clock, in all kinds of weather, doing their share to make our community a better place in which to live. I will depend a great deal on their abilities.

As for promises for the future, all that I will promise is that I will do the best job I possibly can and even then I will need your help.

improvements in quality which have resulted from an increase in quantity of students.

"The two-fold demand for quality and quantity" is one of five sets of "counter-straining forces" which, Dr. Goheen says, when held in balance, constitute the strength and balance of the modern university. The other sets are teaching and research, national needs and international responsibilities, science and humanism and forces of detachment and involvement affecting the university and the community-at-large.

Dr. Goheen, who was elected president of the American Council on Education in October, has departed from the usual format of a year-end evaluation of developments at Princeton in this year's Annual Report.

In an introductory paragraph he says that the purpose of his report is "to direct attention to some of the large, often apparently conflicting, national trends and issues within which our efforts at Princeton must be viewed."

Red Cross Tops Goal

The Princeton Chapter of the American Red Cross has collected $43,150 in its fund drive. This figure is $30 more than the campaign goal.

The results of the drive were announced by Jerald S. Hanks and Mrs. Margaret Nevin. Mr. Hanks is president of the Princeton chapter, and Mrs. Nevin was campaign chairman.

Dr. Goheen praises community colleges and post-doctoral programs as fostering "fine performance over a wide spread of needful activities."

"Meanwhile, he adds, "In the key, middle-ground of the four-year liberal arts college, opportunities for superior students are being established in many an institution which never before had an honors program."

The "push of numbers," Dr. Goheen says, has forced secondary schools to provide "stronger preparation" for college-bound students. Colleges, in turn, have been able to initiate programs designed specifically for more able students.

POPULATION GOES UP

By 120,000 in 1961. New Jersey's population increased by about 120,000 persons in 1961, according to a year-end report issued by Dr. Roscoe P. Kandle, State Commissioner of Health.

The excess of births over deaths during the year was 75,000. An additional 45,000 persons migrated to New Jersey from other places, Dr. Kandle said. The Division of Employment Security of the Department of Labor and Industry has predicted that by 1970 New Jersey will have a population of 7,328,000.

There were more births, marriages and deaths in New Jersey in 1961, although the rates per thousand in each of these categories remained about the same as last year. The 1961 figures are estimates because the Health Department has not received final data.

The 1961 figures: births, 135,908; marriages, 40,334; deaths, 60,527. Rates per thousand for marriages and deaths were 6.5 and 9.7 respectively, in both 1960 and 1961. The birth rate per thousand was 21.8 in 1961, as compared with 21.7 in 1960.

Causes of Death Unchanged

The five major causes of death were the same in 1961 as in 1960. In order, they are: diseases of the circulatory system; malignant neoplasms (cancer); vascular lesions affecting the central nervous system (strokes); diseases of early infancy, including congenital malformations; and accidents.

A total of 2,247 persons were killed by accidents, including 747 by motor vehicle accidents and 671 by accidental falls.

New Jersey, along with many other states, experienced a large increase in hepatitis cases in 1961. There were 2,035 cases reported to 1961, as compared with 426 in 1960. Many of the cases were traced to raw clams taken from the Raritan Bay. Taking of shellfish from areas of the bay continues.

HELP WANTED

Naturalists Please Apply.
Biologists or naturalists with a knack for explaining the facts of nature in an interesting manner are needed by the state's department of conservation and economic development.

The department's newly formed Natural Areas Section
has been planning an extended program of park interpretation
for the 1962 season, and is seeking qualified people for part-time, temporary work.

Those selected will be assigned as guides for visitors to Island Beach State Park and the Wharton Tract. They will be responsible for conducting tours through the areas and explaining plant and animal life found in the natural areas.
Island Beach is one of the few natural expanses of barrier beach on the eastern seaboard. Ferns, wild flowers and several unusual plants are found there, and it is a nesting place for many birds.

The 96,000-acre wilderness
of the Wharton Tract shelters
many wild birds and animals
and provides a congenial environment for such rare plants
as the curly fern, the wild indigo, barberry and many medicinal herbs.

Employment will be for April, May, June, September and October. Those who are hired will be placed on call,
and will work as the need for them indicates. Information about the positions may be obtained from James C. Mac-Donald, Natural Areas Section,
New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development, Trenton, 25.

SPORTS In Princeton

PRO FOOTBALL SET HERE

Giants vs. Eagles Sept. 8. The first New Jersey exhibition game between two teams in the National Football League will be played in Palmer Stadium the afternoon of Saturday, September 8.

The opposing elevens will be the last two teams to win the Eastern Division championship in the NFL—the New York Giants and the Philadelphia Eagles. The Eagles were World's Champions in 1960.

The contest has been arranged by the New Jersey Chamber of Commerce. Proceeds will go to boys clubs in New Jersey and youth programs and community development activities sponsored by the Jaycees.

Princeton University, approached on the matter some months ago, at first rejected the proposal for use of the Stadium on the grounds that an inadequate share of the proceeds was being earmarked for charitable purposes. In later discussions among Jaycee officials and the Giants' front office, however, a satisfactory arrangement was reached and permission was given to stage the game here.

It will mark the first time in the 48-year history of the Stadium that professional football has been played here. Expectations are that the lure of a Giant-Eagle game, one of the top rivalries in NFL action, will result in a 46,000-seat sellout.

Final Exhibition. Both teams will be in top shape for the game, since it is the last in the 1962 exhibition schedule. The regular season opens the following weekend.

It is also the only pre-season appearance the Giants will make in the New York-Philadelphia area. In recent years, they have been playing in the Yale Bowl, with proceeds benefiting the New Haven Boys Club, but the Princeton game replaces that contest.

Both teams are heavily backed by fans in their respective cities. Advance season ticket sales for Franklin Field, where the Eagles play, are invariably heavy, and most of their home games in 1961 were sold out.

Ticket sales will begin in April through 147 Jaycee exec chapters throughout New Jersey and the Giant and Eagle organizations. No announcement as to the scale of prices has been made.

TIGERS HEAD FOR PENN

And Probable Trouble. A Pennsylvania basketball team that compiled a better record in the second half of the last season than did Princeton, and is off to a more impressive start this year, will entertain the Tigers Saturday night in Philadelphia. For those with FM radios, the contest will be broadcast over WPRB (103.5) at 7:30.

Starting five juniors, the Quakers have good height, above-average shooting ability and a definite degree of bench strength. Working for them, too, will be the apparent jinx that the Palestra has over Princeton teams.

The court is one on which the Tigers rarely win—actually, about once in every five times they play there. It has been the scene of two league playoffs which they lost (to Cornell in 1954 and Dartmouth in 1942).

Last March, after they had the Ivy title securely bagged, they were walloped by the fast-improving Penn sophomores, 88 to 63. Now, these same sophomores are nearing the veteran stage, and it will be something of an upset if Princeton, the defending champion, tops the Quakers on their own court Saturday.

For the first time within memory, the Penn-Princeton series will be concluded well before the season reaches the half-way mark. The Red and Blue is scheduled to come here for the return game on Saturday, January 27—the first action for Jake McCandless' quintet after a two-week break for examinations.

This bit of scheduling is just one more problem the Tigers have as they seek to become the first team to win the championship three years running since Dartmouth turned the trick from 1942-44. Defensively, they haven't been at all bad this season, but the attack so far has failed to average 60 points a game—a pace well below potential championship form.

What had tentatively figured to be a two-team race between Penn and Princeton now shapes up with Cornell and possibly Yale added title bets. The Ithacans started fast, knocked over Illinois at Champaign in conclusive fashion before Jennifer Bradley ended their winning streak, and apparently will be a major factor in the title battling.

Yale, fourth last year, took care of Brown at Providence with considerable ease last month, and could make a run for it. These four are the logical choices for first division berths, with Harvard, Brown and Dartmouth all capable of registering upsets on their own courts. Columbia again looks like last-place material.

QUINTET LOSES TWO

To Northwestern, Creighton. An average of 17.5 points by Pete Campbell was the only

Long Time No See

Princeton's basketball and hockey teams, last seen in action here before Christmas, won't play at home again until the final week in January. The long series of simultaneous road trips for both is virtually without parallel in athletic scheduling.

The Tiger quintet is at Philadelphia this Saturday, and next weekend travels to New Haven and Providence. Coach Norm Wood's skaters will be in Providence this weekend and Ithaca next.

The term-end examinations follow, with the basketball team resuming action on January 27 when Pennsylvania comes here. Another trip—this one to New England—to face Providence and Boston College—is on the hockey team's schedule before its Ivy opener here with Brown on January 31.

steady scoring output credited to the Tigers in the first two games of their post-Christmas mid-western tour. Spottiness of the attack was reflected in inability on the part of any of the other four starters to hit double figures in both games against Northwestern and Creighton.

Princeton nearly had a solid upset to its credit against Northwestern at Evanston. The Tigers had a fine first half, taking a 38-34 lead to the locker room with them at the intermission. The attack bogged down, however, and in the next 20 minutes, they could account for only 20 points. The contest ended in a 58-58 tie at regulation time as Campbell brought the Tigers from behind with two free throws with ten seconds left.

In overtime, Art Hyland raged a pair of field goals, but the home team made three to win, 64-62. Hyland's 21 points were high for the evening. Campbell made 17 and Jim Hunter filling in for the injured Jack Whitehouse, had ten.

Two days later at Omaha, Creighton led throughout, holding a 27-22 advantage lead and holding this up to 37-23 when play resumed. Standout play by Al Kaemmerlen then narrowed the margin to 48-46 but bench strength enabled the Bluejays to take their fifth in a row.

Kaemmerlen, held to seven by Northwestern, contributed 21 against Creighton, and Campbell maintained a good pace with 18. Hyland was pared to seven. Hunter could make only one field goal and Bill Haarlow's two-game total was 13.

After eight games, the Tigers were no better than 3-5. For results of Tuesday's contest against Butler, see page 21.

LARRIES TO RESUME

Contests This Weekend. Games in hockey and basketball Saturday will mark resumption of winter sports at the Lawrenceville School. The swimming, wrestling and fencing teams will see action again Wednesday, while the winter track team will open its schedule on the 13th against Piddie.

A trip to Toms River to face Admiral Farragut is on the Red and Black quintet's schedule for Saturday. Peddie will provide the first home opposition of 1962 on Wednesday.

The thinly-manned hockey team takes on the Cranford Hockey Club Saturday, looking for its third victory after having lost three to date. The skaters salvaged seventh place in the tournament which the school sponsors with a victory over traditional rival Hill.

The following weekend, Burrillville and Hope High Schools are on the schedule. Both are from Rhode Island.

Blair on Wednesday and the Yale freshmen next Saturday are on the swimmers' schedule. The wrestling team faces Bordentown Military and Blair next week, while the fencers oppose Butler High School and Hun.

THIS FIVE WINS AGAIN

Home Twice This Week. Winner of its last three games, the Princeton High School basketball team will play host to two opponents this week.

The Little Tigers will entertain Franklin, a new addition to their schedule, on Friday and Hightstown, Tuesday, in a return engagement. Both games will start at 3:30.

The Blue and White prepared for the upcoming contests by knocking off unbeaten Pennington here last Thursday, 56-43. The winners had to come from behind, though not by much, after trailing 24-22 at the half. The win increased Princeton High's record to 4-1.

Although Pennington's Larry Shear led all players with a 17-point performance, this was below his average. The ability of the home five to contain Shear was largely instrumental in the outcome. Bunched behind Shear in scoring with 15, 14, and 11, respectively, were Little Tigers George Tucker, Hank Schmidt and John Ben-Singer.

Hightstown, Tuesday's foe, was a 72-34 Blue and White victim in an opening game for both teams. Last season, Coach Tony Borzok's players dropped both games to the Hightstown Rams in losing all but one contest.

SKI CLUB TO MEET

Film, Talk Planned. Skiing in Norway and Iceland will be the topics of a meeting of the Princeton Ski Club next Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Pine Brae Country Club, Rocky Hill-Blavenburg Road.

Jecandie Airlines will present a film of skiing in Norway and a talk on the latest ski facilities in Iceland. Refreshments will be served, and guests are welcome.

The club's first ski trip will be this Friday, Saturday and Sunday to Mad River, Vt. More week-end trips are planned. Those interested persons have been asked to contact Brian Faughnan, club president, at WA 1-7845.

THIRD LOSS ABSORBED

But Tigers Impress. No team likes to drop three in a row, but as Princeton's basketball quintet left the floor after losing to a strong Butler five Tuesday night, there was reason to believe the midwestern jaunt had been beneficial.

It was a 63-58 final for the Indianapolis aggregation, but it took a second-half rally by the highly-regarded Bulldogs to achieve the victory. There was reason to believe, too, that had Butler and Northwestern been playing in Dillon Gym, Princeton would have won the two close games against these midwestern powerhouses.

The Tigers had a 31-29 margin at the intermission, but could not quite maintain the pace in the second period. However, Art Hyland, who had been bothered with a stomach disorder that affected his play against Creighton, was well up in double figures again with 17. Pete Campbell's steady play — he hit for 20 against Butler to raise his average for the trip to 19 per game — was heartening, as was the return of Jack Whiteloe after a severe ankle sprain. Steady shooting from the foul line —

12 of 16 against Butler for 73 percent — is also working for the Orange and Black.

SKATERS LOSE

To St. Lawrence, 5-1. Three goals in the first period was all St. Lawrence needed to top Princeton at Canton, N. Y., Tuesday night. The victors had a 5-0 lead before Don Weedin hit on a third-period shot to avert a whitewash.

Clarkson — top-rated in the east — was on top Wednesday night, with game's against Cosselaer Polytech Friday and Brown at Providence Saturday rounding out the busy week. Loss of Dave Hersey, capable member of the second line, through a minor shoulder separation in a scrimmage last weekend with the St. Nicks was adding to the team's manpower problems. He'll be sidelined all week.

BOWLING NOTES

Two Tie For Title. Kingston and Dutch Neck finished in a tie for first place as the first-half competition in the Tri-County Firemen's Bowling League ended last week. Both teams had 58 points. Princeton No. 1 was third with 54. Gale Cleaners opened up a five-point lead, 89-84, over Jefferson Plumbing entering the last week of the first-half of the season in the Women's Industrial League. Decker's Dairy also had 84 points to tie for second place.

Princeton Inn spurred to a ten-point lead, 70-60, over Nio Motors in the "A" League to clinch the first-half title with a week of bowling left. Crescents was nine points ahead of Tiger Garage, 65-56, in the Industrial League, and Conover Motors led Amron Homes, 96-85, in Women's League. Craft Dry Cleaners was third with 72.

High single game rolled last week was a 239, part of a 610 triple, by the "A" League's Al Hibbard. Tony Lieggi and Bill Dumble each had 224 singles in the same league. Nick Seulerati rolled a 222 game in the Industrial League, and Doug Watson and Carman Panico each had 214 games in the Tri-County Firemen's League. Helen Scott topped the Women's League with a 213 game.

Other high singles were recorded by Frank Stofko (210), Jack Stout (203), Ben Herriman (202), Bip Davison (200) and Barry DaVall (200) in the Tri-County Firemen's League; Ann Hubbard (205) and Sara Rose (202) in the Women's Industrial League; Andy Drummond (201) and Herbert Ireland (200) in the Industrial League. Women scoring over 180 included Julia Ball (191), Irene Mihan (187) and Betty Klieber in the Women's Industrial League. Audrey Lan-

FLYING FISH DEFEATED

By Westfield Swimmers. Although it captured 11 first places in 20 events, the boys' team of the Princeton YMCA Flying Fish lost its second meet in four Saturday when it was defeated by the Westfield Y, 100 to 82. Each team held the lead several times but Princeton lacked depth to take the relay events it needed to win.

IBM

Our Research Department has just finished a 4,800 word report on this giant corporation, the undisputed leader of what is called the Revolution in Information Technology. A complete rundown of a question that has recently interested professional investors—has a change in sales mix affected IBM's long term growth pattern—is the highlight of the report. (The answer: Yes, somewhat.) And in nailing down this problem it has also been necessary to make some careful assessments of the industry's future growth, IBM's probable position in it, and to appraise some recent competitive practices in data processing. These practices, the report says, could backfire on IBM's competitors.

If you are interested, we shall be pleased to send you a copy of this study.

SPORTS AND GAMES

What We Play.
How and Where and When

POLO and bob-sledding apart, one can pursue pretty nearly every kind of sport in Denmark. Quite often there is skating for about a week in the year, and much the same applies to skiing. Denmark's highest mountain, which is at least 570 feet, matches the skiing season.

There are, however, ample opportunities for yachting because there is a lot of coast with plenty of well-behaved sea, but on the west coast it is undoubtedly wiser to rely on steamers. Swimming requires less equipment and is particularly popular. The Danish girls are usually good swimmers and they can swim as fast as anybody — if they want to Everyone rides a bicycle, but it is unwise to pretend that you believe the common joke that you can just pick up a bicycle in the street and put it down again when you are tired of riding it. Bicycles, contrary to the impression travellers may inadvertently acquire, are not the property of the State. They are privately owned.

Football is the most popular sport. Watching football is infinitely more popular. Tennis, badminton and bridge are played a great deal. There are ten quite good golf courses in different parts of the country. But golf is most decidedly not a national sport. The balls are too small, the holes too small and the implements inadequate.

Neither Rugby nor baseball is a national sport—to so small a degree, in fact, that no soul plays them.

There is horse-racing, trotting and motor-racing nearly all the year round in Copenhagen; but dog-racing is totally unorganized and amateur, amounting only to casual affairs between stray dogs in the streets or the roads.

SECLUSION PLUS CONVENIENCE

It's rare to find such country atmosphere (peace, quiet, trees, at the end of a permanent cul-de-sac) so conveniently located (a few minutes from the busline or, possibly, walkable to town.) It's a good house, too, basically well planned and enhanced by attractive touches: dropped living room, raised hearth, flagstone, brick, etc. 3 bedrooms, or 2 plus study, with 2 baths make it a perfect house for a couple who like seclusion but not isolation. Asking $46,500.

EVERYTHING GOOD AND TRUE

Everything that can be said about a modern house that is good and true, can be said about Hedgerow.
A snug stone and stucco home on a high acre, just a mile from colorful New Hope. Hedgerow, built seven years ago, has proved itself against heavy rains and blizzards. It has been kept so shipshape by its house-proud owners that you could move right in and feel immediately at home. On the first floor there is a 37x55 paneled living-dining room with big stone fireplace which opens onto a sunny covered stone terrace with a peaceful view. A good size den, Keystone kitchen with Thermador equipment. Three bedrooms form a separate, quiet sleeping area with 1 1/2 ceramic tiled baths. Two large rooms on the second floor. Basement with laundry. Two-car garage. The grounds are beautiful beyond description.
Offered at $23,900.

AS WE SEE IT!
by John Conole

The American Medical Association has recently published an informative little booklet entitled "Let's Use, Not Abuse, Health Insurance." Everyone realizes that insurance does not create new money. It is merely a way of pooling money to protect against some of the serious economic consequences of sickness or injury that may occur. As the cost of medical care rises and the increased rate of illnesses or injuries continues the cost of protection naturally goes higher. Even when the cost of this insurance is borne by your union or employer, the money paid actually comes out of your pocket. We often hear that it is the fault of the doctors or the hospital that medical costs continue to rise. In all fairness we must admit that a good part of the blame lies with the education of the public. There are times when your physician may not recommend that you enter the hospital for some procedures, even though your insurance stipulates that payment will be made only when you are hospitalized. Strange as it may seem, your doctor may be trying to keep your total costs down. AS WE SEE IT, everyone bears equal responsibility for controlling the costs of medical treatment. As a consumer, you can help by not pressuring your doctor to hospitalize you when it is not absolutely necessary. Many of the more common ailments can be treated equally well at home or in his office. Remember, it is your money that pays for treatment, whether or not you use medical insurance. We invite anyone sincerely interested in the costs and uses of medical insurance to telephone, write or stop in for your copy of this excellent booklet. MERCER-PRINCETON REALTY COMPANY, INC., 21 Chambers Street, Princeton, WA 1-7282

Announces

Beauty Bath for Dry Skin

Tree of Life
Beauty Bath Discovery
Both Silken and Scents
You All Over!

Only Helena Rubinstein, First Lady of Beauty Science, could have created this Beauty Bath! It contains the same deep-penetrating oils and beneficial emollients she uses in her famous face creams for dry skin. This superb therapeutic-type discovery smooths all of you to silken softness and envelops you with delicious, lasting fragrance at the same time.

No bath oil ever penetrated like this. Dryness disappears in the two minutes it takes your skin to drink in the precious moisturizers and lubricants.

Unlike ordinary products that stay on top of your skin, Beauty Bath is absorbed deep within. There is no sign of grease on your skin or your towel.

Chapped heels, knees, elbows are pampered and smoothed; feel noticeably softer to your touch. Dry or flaky areas vanish. Taut nerves and tiredness seem to melt away while you bathe. And only one capful in your tub . . . so little does so much.

Stretch out in the warm, fragrant luxury of a Tree of Life Beauty Bath tonight or tomorrow morning. You will rise from your bath silkened and scented all over!
